Letter No.[illegible] dated [illegible] sioner, Mysore District [illegible] orc.

Transfer of Inam lands [illegible] Sri Basaveswara temples at Ingalgudi and Dattavalli, orc Tiptur.

I have the honour to state that it has recently come to notice that the Sri Basaveswara and Sri Bhairavesvara temples at Ingalgudi and Dattavalli villages, Kasaba Hobli, Tiptur reported that both the structures are now in a dilapidated condition and the villagers are not likely to undertake restoration of the buildings and to revive puja in the temples.

2. The Amildar reports that the people of Ingalgudi intend, after the Car festivals, to start the work of repairing the temples and to that end have collected Rs.[illegible] towards the estimated cost of Rs.[illegible] and prayed for a grant from Government. He states that the Inam lands of the two concerned Institutions referred to above, are transferred to the Sri Bhairavesvara temple and it is performing regularly.

3. I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to the proposal of the Amildar.

4. The connected file of recor is enclosed.

I am directed to forward herewith a copy of the Inam Register relating to the Inam lands belonging to the Sri Sankaracharya Swami Temple, Chamundi Extension, Mysore City, which is an institution at the foot of the Chamundi Hill and is in need of funds to carry on the worship of the deity and to maintain the temple. There are no other land grants enjoyed by the temple and it is in need of funds as there is no prospect of increase in the future collections which is in a dilapidated condition. The temple and the residences of Linganandi, who have now settled in the neighbouring Kannegowdana Koppalu village, have no objection to the proposed resumption of the Inam lands.
